MISSIONARY UPDATE:

Brandon + Kristi Kosse

LOCATION: USA (formerly Austria)

Happy February, Friends!

I have a thought provoking question for you: When you hear the word pivot (as in, life suddenly requiring you to take an unexpected turn), what comes to your mind?

Does Covid pop up? Maybe relocating to a new town? A job change, new school, or health challenges? Kids moving out or getting married? It's funny, because all of these things have happened in our family, and you, our prayer and financial partners, were there with us, watching it all unfold!

We are so thankful for the love and support you have given and continue to give, celebrating with us the blessings, or mourning with us in the tough times. Thank you for being there for us through each pivot.

As God often does, He's pivoting us again. Brandon has been pursuing his master's degree while working as a pastoral counselor, and I have been working with WorldVenture's Mobilization & Mentoring Team. However, God has lovingly interrupted that plan and is redirecting our steps!

At this time, we are talks with WorldVenture about remaining stateside in global ministry, in a new, support-based leadership role. In the meantime, Brandon has stepped forward in faith, discontinuing graduate classes this semester and closing his counseling schedule.

Though this transition would require us to pivot, we know that God closes one door only to open the best door. He often directs us as we move forward by faith, and while the path ahead varies from what we pictured, we clearly see Him at work. Though we don't have all the details yet, we are listening to the Holy Spirit and following His lead.

We will share more with you soon as plans are solidified with WorldVenture. And during these next couple weeks, will you please pray for us? For wisdom as we navigate decisions. For joy as we open our hearts to new God adventures. For peace as we adjust our course and pivot in the direction God is guiding us. He has led us this far, and He won't stop now!

With joyful anticipation for all He has in store,

Kristi, Brandon, & family
